KEEP SAC SAFE

By Robert Evans

Cuts Proposed to the Probation Department will make Sacramento the ONLY county in California without a supervision program for probationers – Putting our communities in danger!

Cuts to last year's Probation Dept. budget resulted in the loss of more than 100 sworn officers. This year the County is proposing even more cuts to the Department's budget, taking it back to 1990 staffing levels and leaving only a handful of officers to monitor more than 27,000 criminals sentenced to probation.

The proposed cuts would virtually eliminate the Probation Department: Eliminates Field Supervision: More than 85% of the County's juvenile probationers and more than 99% of adult probationers, including more than 84% of registered sex offenders, would go unsupervised.

This month, we invite representatives from Keep Sac Safe to discuss what you can do about keeping yourself safe from the more than 27,000 criminals—and 5,000 high risk offenders—on probation in Sacramento County.

This is a DO NOT MISS safety meeting for all Republicans of River City members.

THE SACRAMENTO COUNTY BUDGET

by Robert Evans

According to a memo to the Board of Supervisors by Steven C. Szalay, our Interim County Executive, the fiscal year 2010-11 recommended budget for Sacramento County will decrease 17.7% from fiscal year 2009-10.

The decrease in the fiscal year budget is due to the economic downturn, resulting in a decrease of $100 million in discretionary General Fund revenue.

The impact on County of Sacramento government is profound. Many employees will be eliminated and many services now taken for granted may be curtailed. In other words, be ready for service cuts.

WHAT IS THE VALUE OF COUNTY FAIRS AND COMMUNITY FESTIVALS?

By President Carl Burton

For a local political organization the County Fair lets their image shine before the general public and with the right approach the organization can help build a favorable image for their party and candidates.

Once again the Republicans of River City had a booth at the Sacramento County Fair (May 27-31) where we registered voters and gave out candidate campaign literature.

For the candidates or public officials who take time out of their busy schedules to spend a day (or maybe a few hours) working at our booth greeting voters, it gives them the opportunity to meet the voters of their districts. These are the voters who don't attend political meetings or give money to political candidates but who will vote in the election; or as some have classified these people, the silent voters.
